LAX 14	CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION
COUNTRY	Germany (Soviet Some) REPORT
م ناto	peberitg Airfield	_
EVALUATION_	PLACE OBTAINED
DATE OF COI	NTENT
DATE OBTAIN	DATE PREPARED 30 April 1951
REFERENCES		et etter og er tiller som et en
PAGES	PENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
		50X1-HUM
1,	took off from Doeberitz (* 53/2 65) airfield from west to cast. planes assembled over the troop training grounds and hoaded west. was intensive activity at the field with much movement of trucks trucks. "ork was being done on almost all the planes parked at the At about 11 a.m., a formation flew over the field from west to easilitude of about 2,000 meters. The formation broke-up by flying circles and then landed in elements of two at a distance of about meters. After landing, some of the planes taxied to the northern	There There and tank he field. t at an large 50X1-HU edge of
2.	took off from Doeberitz (* 53/2 65) airfield from west to cast. planes assembled over the troop training grounds and hoaded west. was intensive activity at the field with much movement of trucks atrucks. Work was being done on almost all the planes parked at the about 11 a.m., a formation flew over the field from west to easieltitude of about 2,000 meters. The formation broke-up by flying circles and then landed in elements of two at a distance of about meters. After landing, some of the planes taxied to the northern the field, others to the southern edge. A total of 77 aircraft we on the northern edge although the view was partially obstructed.  Thirty-two planes were couns southern edge. This number probably does not represent all the pithere. The interior of the hangars, some of which were open, coulsoon.  A fire truck, several trucks, tank trucks, and a radio truck with about five to six meters high were parked at the take-off point.	There There and tank ne field. t at an large 50X1-HU 1,500 edge of ere counted ted on the lance parked ld not be 50X1-HU a rod entenna
	took off from Doeberitz (* 53/2 65) airfield from west to cast. planes assembled over the troop training grounds and headed west. was intensive activity at the field with much movement of trucks a trucks. Fork was being done on almost all the planes parked at the At about 11 a.m., a formation flew over the field from west to eas altitude of about 2,000 meters. The formation broke-up by flying circles and then landed in elements of two at a distance of about meters. After landing, some of the planes taxied to the northern the field, others to the southern edge. A total of 77 aircraft we on the northern edge although the view was partially obstructed.  Thirty-two planes were counsouthern edge. This number probably does not represent all the pathern. The interior of the hangars, some of which were open, coursoon.  A fire truck, several trucks, tank trucks, and a radio truck with about five to six meters high were parked at the take-off point. were seen at the fuel dump.	The There and tank ne field. t at an large 50X1-HU edge of street counted ted on the lance parked ld not be 50X1-HU a rod sntenna No changes
2.	took off from Doeberitz (* 53/2 65) airfield from west to cast. planes assembled over the troop training grounds and headed west. was intensive activity at the field with much movement of trucks a trucks. work was being done on almost all the planes parked at the At about 11 a.m., a formation flew over the field from west to eas altitude of about 2,000 meters. The formation broke-up by flying circles and then landed in elements of two at a distance of about meters. After landing, some of the planes taxied to the northern the field, others to the southern edge. A total of 77 aircraft we on the northern edge although the view was partially obstructed.  Thirty-two planes were counsouthern edge. This number probably does not represent all the pathers. The interior of the hangars, some of which were open, coursoon.  A fire truck, several trucks, tank trucks, and a radio truck with about five to six meters high were parked at the take-off point. were seen at the fuel dump.  At 11 a.m., 60 parked aircraft were counted at the field. Passer	The There and tank ne field. t at an large 50X1-HU sericans parked to not be 50X1-HU a rod entenna No changes 50X1-Huer car50X1-Hen in the area 50X1-H
2.	took off from Doeberitz (* 53/2 65) airfield from west to cast. planes assembled over the troop training grounds and hoaded west. was intensive activity at the field with much movement of trucks atrucks. More was being done on almost all the planes parked at the At about 11 a.m., a formation flew over the field from west to eas altitude of about 2,000 meters. The formation broke-up by flying circles and then landed in elements of two at a distance of about meters. After landing, some of the planes taxied to the northern the field, others to the southern edge. A total of 77 aircraft we on the northern edge although the view was partially obstructed.  Thirty-two planes were counsouthern edge. This number probably does not represent all the planes. The interior of the hangars, some of which were open, courson.  A fire truck, several trucks, tank trucks, and a radio truck with about five to six meters high were parked at the take-off point. were seen at the fuel dump.  At 11 a.m., 60 parked aircraft were counted at the field. Passer and trucks and trucks were seen at the field.*	There There There and tank he field. t at an large 50X1-HU edge of here counted ted on the land parked ld not be 50X1-HU a rod setenna No charges 50X1-H here in the area 50X1-H 50X1-HU
2.	took off from Doeberitz ( 53/2 65) airfield from west to east. planes assembled over the troop training grounds and hoaded west. was intensive activity at the field with much movement of trucks trucks. work was being done on almost all the planes parked at the At about 11 a.m., a formation flew over the field from west to east altitude of about 2,000 meters. The formation broke-up by flying circles and then landed in elements of two at a distance of about meters. After landing, some of the planes taxied to the northern the field, others to the southern edge. A total of 77 aircraft won the northern edge although the view was partially obstructed.  Thirty-two planes were counsouthern edge. This number probably does not represent all the planes. The interior of the hangars, some of which were open, coulsoen.  A fire truck, several trucks, tank trucks, and a radio truck with about five to six meters high were parked at the take-off point. were seen at the fuel dump.  At 11 a.m., 60 parked aircraft were counted at the field. Passer and trucks of the field.*   Comment.	The There and tank he field. It at an large 50X1-HU ledge of ere counted ledge of the tank parked ledge of tank parked l
2.	took off from Doeberitz ( 53/2 65) airfield from west to cast. planes assembled over the troop training grounds and headed west. was intensive activity at the field with much movement of trucks trucks. "ork was being done on almost all the planes parked at the At about 11 a.m., a formation flew over the field from west to east altitude of about 2,000 meters. The formation broke-up by flying circles and then landed in clements of two at a distance of about meters. After landing, some of the planes taxied to the northern the field, others to the southern edge. A total of 77 aircraft we on the northern edge although the view was partially obstructed.  Thirty-two planes were counsouthern edge. This number probably does not represent all the pithers. The interior of the hangars, some of which were open, counson.  A fire truck, several trucks, tank 'rucks, and a radio truck with about five to six meters high were parked at the take-off point. were seen at the fuel dump.  At 11 a.m., 60 parked aircraft were counted at the field. Passer of the field. *  Comment.  Comment.  Document to the change in the number of aircraft reported was confirmed by another source of Document to Docum	The There and tank he field. It at an large 50X1-HU ledge of ere counted ledge of the tank parked ledge of tank parked l